

Title 141 - THE NEBRASKA EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION
NEBRASKA CIVIL RIGHTS OF 1969
PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS

Chapter 6 - SERVICE.

001 Manner of Service. Complainants, orders and other process and proper papers may be served personally or by registered or certified mail, unless otherwise allowed by the Act and by these Rules and Regulations, in which event, service may be made by ordinary first-class mail, postage prepaid.

002 Proof of Service. Proof of service, where required by the Act, or by these Rules and Regulations, shall consist of either the verified return of the individual who made service, which return shall set forth the manner of such service or the return receipt from service by certified or registered mail.

003 Service on Parties' Attorneys. The attorney representing any party in any proceedings under the Act shall file her or his appearance with the Commission, and thereafter all notices, orders and other documents served by the Commission shall be served upon said attorney instead of upon the party she or he represents, until said attorney or said party notifies the Commission in writing that said attorney no longer represents or is authorized to represent said party.
